

With the help of the technological knowledge and support of one of the group companies, Netkey Informatics Systems LLC, UP Human Resources Learning and Management Services develops softwares that are needed in any fields by the enterprises. These structures that are developed accordingly are synchronized with the database and the data process background which are used within the enterprise, and they are kept working constantly.